

1813 HARMON VAN VECHTEN

Died:-At Schuylerville, Saratoga county, on the 21st inst, Mrs. Catharine Van Vechten, consort of Harmon Van Vechten, in the 60th year of her age. She has left a large family and a numerous circle of friends to mourn her loss.--Daily Albany Argus, July 26, 1830.

Dr. Harmon van vechten, third son of Cornelius and Maria(Grossbeck) Van Vechten, was born June 26 1796. He died August 30 1873. Married Caroline Bostwick, February 1823. She was born February 16 1800. Died June 20 1888. They had four sons and no daughters. They lived at Havana, N.Y.

Children: Morris Bostwick (b. Dec. 25 1823 d. Oct. 25 1886) married Catherine Dorcas Roe May 8 1849 One daughter.

John J. (b. Dec. 26 1824 d. Oct. 30 1893) Married

Emeline Mitchell, March 15 1848 . No children.

Walter Frederick (b. May 1 1826 d. Jan. 8 1850) single

Charles Brice (b. August 10 1831 d.)

Married Julia Ross Mitchell, Nov. 8 1858. One daughter.

Above information taken from "Genealogical Records of the Van Vechtens".

HERMAN VAN VECHTEN, 1813, a resident of Schaghticoke, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society. (Died

Philomathean Catalogue 1830.

1813

VAN VECHTEN HARMON - Son of Cornelius V. V. and Annetia Knickerbocker, Albany. He was born near 15, 1772 and died May 26 1859. His wife was Catherine Wendell of Albany, whom he married Jan. 10, 1793. She was born June 24, 1772 and died July 21, 1830. Harmon lived on his farm between Coreville, and Bevis Heights - Saratoga County, later moving into Schuylerville, where he died. The children (13) were all born on the farm.

Note: Lot in this V. V. genealogy about Col. Cornelius Van Veehten and his military career.

Harmon Van Vechten 1813
AP

Harmon Van Vechten

H.B.
1813